

PARADE SHOWCASES LOCAL BUILDERS

The 2015 Builder Association of Greater Lafayette's Parade of Homes featured 20 new homes constructed by 12 local builders. These homes were on display to the Greater Lafayette community on June 18-19 & June 25-26.

The most current trends in building materials, floor plans, interior design and technology were highlighted in homes created for a wide range of lifestyles and budgets.

Henry Poor Lumber and Flooring Express were excited to have many of their products on display in these homes. This included building materials, siding, flooring, counters and countertops, windows, doors and composite decking.

Jay Andrew commented, "It is always nice to work closely with our builders with the design and construction of their homes. We appreciate the opportunity to provide the building materials for their projects."

Thank You To Our Local Builders

We would like to thank all the builders listed, who let us be part of the Parade of Homes through the many high quality products and services we supply.

Great Food, Good Fun Support Food Finders

Chuck Mooney takes his turn on the hot seat as part of Henry Poor's June cookout and fund raiser.

We took the opportunity at our June cookout to raise funds for Lafayette's Food Finders Food Bank by selling chances to send a Henry Poor team member into a dunk tank.

Henry Poor's monthly cookouts continue to be a lot of fun with great food and sponsors that take the time to set up displays and demonstrate their products. BUT they are even more fun and interesting when you combine a great meal with a fun activity to raise money for a good cause.

Henry Poor candidate took a dive each time the target was hit. This led to some interesting challenges as each "shooter" did their best to dunk either Kelly Mctague, Jeff Renie, Breyanna Turner or Chuck Mooney. None of which left their seat unscathed or dry.

Overall the event raised $1032 for Fund Finders which will pay for 3096 meals.

We'd like to thank all those who participated and took their best shot at helping a great cause.

John Poore and the "one that almost got away!"

"Anytime I can get a fishing pole out, I'm happy," says John Poore. As the photo attests, John knows where to find the big ones. He noted that on the same evening he caught this 16 lb. drum at a spot along the Wabash River, he and Jeff Renie caught 24 other fish.

John has been a delivery driver for Henry Poor for the past two years. He primarily drives one of the boom trucks and makes deliveries of lumber, decking and shingles. He has taken product to customers as far away as Marion, Anderson and Carmel. John enjoys being a driver because he likes working outside and staying busy. He also appreciates how everyone at Henry Poor gets along and helps out when there is work to be done.

John is a native of Lafayette and resided here his whole life. He is the proud father of three daughters, the oldest is 22 and he has two 18 year old twins that just graduated from McCutcheon high school.

Joyful Journey Cuts Ribbon On New Center

Joyful Journey's ribbon cutting was attended by many local supporters.

Joyful Journey is a day center for adults who cannot safely stay home, but do not require medical care. The vision of Cathy and Gerard Benner when they conceived the plan for this "home away from home" was to provide a safe place for individuals who needed ongoing supervision and whose care givers needed to work or needed time to do other things. This gives adult children who provide round-the-clock care for elderly loved ones a break.

The new day center was built with the tremendous support of the community who contributed over $1 million to create a residence that offers meaningful social, mental and physical interaction geared to each individual's needs. Joyful Journey is located on the corner of Lindberg Rd and Salisbury St. in West Lafayette.

Henry Poor Lumber was actively involved in the construction of Joyful Journey. Chuck Mooney served as Henry Poor's project coordinator and worked closely with Ben Hoffman of Big Ben Builders and Carl Robinson from Tecton on all the details to make this project come together. Henry Poor Lumber supplied all the lumber, trusses, siding, roofing, interior doors and windows.

Cathy Benner in her comments at the Joyful Journey ribbon cutting on July 31, thanked all those in the community who had a part in creating this wonderful place for our loved ones. She and Gerard also appreciated how so many had joined in their campaign to raise money and make this endeavor so successful.

Jim Andrew, Jay Andrew and Chuck Mooney were present at the ribbon cutting to see how the project turned out. Jim Andrew remarked, "This is a wonderful place that the Benners have created. We are truly thankful that they saw a need and decided to address it for all those who have loved ones needing this type of care."
